

Sandwiches Café is a quite haven in the heart of York beside the busy market. We serve an extensive menu of home made quality food and great Coffees in one of the oldest standing former houses in York.

According to York Conservation Trust ? 12 Newgate is probably the second oldest dated house in York. The range Nos. 12 to 15 Newgate represents the surviving units of a row of timber-framed houses built in the churchyard of St. Sampson in 1337, facing south-east along Newgate. ?.

Sandwiches Café has two quirkily themed upper storey seating / dining areas where you can sit amongst original timbered walls and relax. As well as their extensive menu which is available daily they also cater for private parties of up to 26 guests. If you are looking for a quaint and cosy venue with a twist you and book here.
