

The Kings Arms is located in the heart of the village of North Duffield by the village green, just off the A163 between Skipwith and Budwith.

In addition to the great traditional pub atmosphere at the bar, they have a comfortable conservatory which seats 32. The Kings Arms can accommodate parties of up to 90 dining guests and are pleased to cater for family functions such as weddings and christenings etc.

Their home cooked menu is available here. There are also have daily specials and a Sunday carvery from 12 to 5pm. You can book your table for larger parties by clicking here. There are also regular events throughout the year. Details can be found here.

It's great to find a traditional village pub thriving in times when all we seem to hear is bad news about the pub industry. Village pubs should be seen as the heart of the community and supported in their pivotal role. So next time you are in the area, call in for a pint and a bite to eat. Mark and his staff will offer you a very warm welcome?
